

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Chapter 1 – Introduction	Page
Resident Involvement in the Planning Process	1-1
Community Profile	1-2
Population	1-2
Second Home Ownership	1-4
Dixie State College and Population	1-5
Household Characteristics	1-5
Tourism	1-6
Economic Growth	1-6
Housing and Land Prices	1-7
Summary	1-7
Summary of St. George Parks, Recreation, and Arts Survey Results	1-7
Potential For Bias	1-8
Demographics of Survey Respondents	1-8
How Leisure and Recreation Needs are Met	1-8
Park Use	1-9
Use of Leisure Services’ Programs and Facilities	1-9
New Activities and Facilities Desired	1-11
Arts and Cultural Events	1-11
Trails	1-12
Future Parks and Recreation Development	1-13
Summary
Coordination With Other Plans	1-15
Organization of the Document	1-16
Chapter 2 – Parks
General Plan Goals, Objectives, and Policy Direction	2-1
Resident Survey Results	2-2
Park Usage	2-2
Most Used Parks or Facilities	2-2
Parks Close to Home	2-3
Most Needed Park Land	2-3
Summary	2-3
Existing and Planned Future Parks	2-4
Neighborhood Parks	2-4
Neighborhood Park Definition	2-4
Neighborhood Parks Requiring Upgrades	2-5
Future Planned Neighborhood Parks	2-6
Community Parks	2-6
Community Park Definition	2-6
Community Parks Requiring Upgrades	2-7
Future Planned Community Parks	2-8
Community Parks Analysis	2-8

Existing and Planned Future Park Distribution Analysis	2-9
Other Parks and Facilities	2-9
Future Neighborhood and Community Parks in New Growth Areas	2-10
Future Neighborhood Parks	2-10
New Community Parks	2-11
Natural Open Spaces	2-12
Maintenance and Management	2-13
Summary Recommendations and Actions	2-15
Existing Neighborhood Parks Requiring Upgrade or Renovation	2-15
Future Planned Neighborhood Parks	2-15
New Neighborhood Parks in Existing Neighborhoods	2-15
Neighborhood Parks in the Undeveloped New Growth Areas	2-16
Existing Community Park Improvements	2-17
Future Planned Community Parks	2-17
Community Parks in the Undeveloped New Growth Areas	2-17
Natural Open Lands	2-18
Chapter 3 – Recreation
Defining the City’s Role in Providing Recreation Opportunities	3-1
Summary of Public Comment and Discussion	3-2
Survey Results	3-2
How Leisure and Recreation Needs are Met	3-2
Favorite Existing Programs and Facilities	3-2
Most Needed or Desired Activities and Facilities	3-4
Focus Group Comment	3-4
General Shortage of Facilities	3-4
Decline in Participation in Youth Sports	3-5
Soccer Facilities Shortages	3-5
Baseball and Softball	3-6
Scheduling Conflicts and Support Facilities	3-6
Locating Large Regional Facilities	3-6
Non-Competitive Programs	3-7
Swimming Pools	3-7
Indoor Soccer and Futsal	3-7
New Recreation Opportunities	3-8
Access to Recreation Information	3-8
Economic Benefit of Sports and Sports Facilities	3-8
Recreation Programs’ Participation	3-9
Decreases in Participation	3-9
Increases in Participation	3-9
Existing Recreation Facilities	3-11
Recreation Needs Summary	3-13
Recommendations and Actions	3-13
The City’s Role	3-13
Sports Fields and Programs	3-14

Recreation Centers and Water Facilities	3-14
Programs for Children	3-15
Healthy Lifestyles	3-16
Specialty Classes	3-16
Regional Recreation	3-17

Chapter 4 – Community Arts

Summary of Public Comment	4-1
Survey Results	4-1
Most-Attended Activities and Most-Used Facilities	4-1
Most-Needed Activities and Facilities	4-2
Leisure Services Building Uses	4-3
Expansion of Arts Venues	4-4
Attendance at Art Activities	4-4
Children’s Art Activities	4-4
Focus Group Comment	4-4
Comments With General Agreement	4-5
Performing Arts Specific Comments	4-5
Visual Arts Specific Comments	4-6
Existing Arts Facilities and Programs	4-7
Performing Arts Venues	4-7
Pioneer Opera House	4-8
Dixie State College	4-8
Schools and Libraries	4-8
St. George Musical Theater	4-8
Visual Arts Venues	4-9
St. George Arts Museum and the Pioneer Center for the Arts	4-9
Dinosaur Discovery Site at Johnson Farm	4-9
Art Around the Corner	4-10
Leisure Services Building Adaptive Reuse	4-11
Daughters of the Utah Pioneers Museum	4-11
Rosenbruch Wildlife Museum	4-11
Hela Seegmiller Historic Farm	4-11
Arts and Cultural Events and Activities	4-12
First Night	4-12
Concert in the Park Series	4-12
Dino Days in Dixie	4-12
St. George Live Historic Tour	4-12
Heritage Week	4-12
Arts Festival	4-12
Economic Benefit of the Arts	4-13
Summary Recommendations and Actions	4-13
Arts Planning Actions	4-13
City/County Coordination and Partnerships	4-14
Cultural Programming	4-14

Chapter 5 – Trails
Summary of Public Comment on Trails	5-1
Survey Results	5-1
Trail Usage	5-1
Needed Trail Improvements	5-2
More Trails By Type	5-2
Priority Ranking for Trails	5-3
Focus Group, Transportation Expo, and Open House Comments	5-3
Repair of Damaged Trails and Bridges	5-3
Trails to Downtown St. George From Sun River and Bloomington Hills	5-3
Trail Linkages	5-3
Bicycle Commuters	5-4
Off-Road Trail Safety	5-4
On-Road Bicycle Safety	5-4
Equestrian Trails	5-4
Regional Trails	5-4
Public Education	5-5
Trails Development	5-5
Trail Maintenance	5-5
Funding Trail Development	5-5
Existing Trails and Trailheads	5-6
Future Trails and Trailheads	5-7
Recommendations	5-9
Short Term Priorities	5-9
On-going Actions	5-10
Chapter 6 – Implementation
Funding Opportunities	6-1
Private Funds	6-1
Private and Public Partnerships	6-1
Private Fundraising	6-2
Service Organization Partners	6-2
Joint Development Partnerships	6-2
Local Funding Sources	6-2
ZAP or RAP Taxes	6-2
Park and Recreation Impact Fees	6-2
Dedications	6-2
City Funding – General Fund or Bonding	6-3
Special Taxes	6-3
Community Development Block Grants	6-3
User Fees	6-3
Redevelopment Agency Funds	6-3
State and Federal Programs	6-3
Urban Parks and Recreation Recovery Program	6-4

Land and Water Conservation Fund	6-4
SAFETEA-LU	6-4
Federal Recreational Trails Program	6-5
Utah Trails and Pathways/Non-Motorized Trails Program	6-5
LeRay McAllister Critical Land Conservation Fund	6-5
Utah Arts Council	6-5
In-Kind and Donated Services and Funds	6-6

